

Lawyers who have experience handling Residential School
abuse claims

This list has been compiled by the Indian Residential School Survivors Society (IRSSS) as a resource for Survivors, their families, communities and nations.

The law firms and lawyers listed have demonstrated experience in handling historic abuse cases, such as Residential School abuse claims. To our knowledge, they continue to provide effective services in good faith.

By providing this list, the IRSSS makes no endorsement of any individual law firm or lawyer.

Please note: Survivors should know that Canada will provide 15%, over and above any compensation they may receive, to cover legal fees. The 15% provided by Canada should cover the vast majority of claims in the IAP. Some lawyers may try to charge legal fees in addition to those paid by Canada. Survivors are not obliged to agree to such additional legal fees.

Anyone knowing of any reason for anyone to be removed from this list should contact the IRSSS immediately.

Anyone needing help can contact the IRSSS for assistance and information:
